

K-Love Radio is a very important to me as I hear national news of things that interest me as a Christian; The music that is played is safe for the entire family to listen to; If it were replaced, we would not glean the benefits of a national media with a Christian influence. The public needs this type of service so we have choices and not just a secular spectrum.